PRIDE 1999

Results and implications of Youth and Family Outreach survey completed March 1999.

Process

The survey was prepared by the Youth Coordinators and their advisor. It was distributed at the youth groups meeting at the Gay and Lesbian Center and at Youth Pride. It was also distributed at the Youth March in Atlanta commemorating Equality Begins at Home, on March 27, 1999. One hundred surveys were distributed. Sixty-nine were returned completed.

Results

Those responding to the survey ranged in age from fifteen through fifty years old. The breakdown was as follows:

Under fourteen -----	no responses
Fifteen to eighteen -----	21 responses
Nineteen to twenty-one --	17 responses
Twenty-two to thirty ----	23 responses
Thirty to forty -----	5 responses
Forty-one to fifty -----	3 responses
Over fifty -----	no responses

The proposed events and the survey results are listed below. The events are listed in order of priority based on the number of responses for each. Only those indicating that they would attend a program were included in the tally.

	Would attend
"Your role in your gay community"-----	66 of 69
Youth empowerment and leadership
"Raising a child in a gay family"-----	62 of 69
"Making better decisions in the bedroom"-----	61 of 69
Safer sex for all
"Surviving the streets"-----	59 of 69
Self defense and personal safety
"It's time to say NO!"-----	59 of 69
Surviving domestic violence
"Should I or shouldn't I?"-----	59 of 69
Coming out and its effect on your life
"Queers and God"-----	50 of 69
Homosexuality and religion
"Adoption.....an option for me?"-----	43 of 69
"Divorce...who gets custody?"-----	34 of 69
Custody issues facing queer parents
"How to surf safely"-----	26 of 69
Internet safety

In addition to the topics recorded above, the survey asked if there was interest in a youth dance and/or a youth march during the Pride weekend. The results of those who would attend were as follows:

A youth dance/rave/party-----	59 of 69
A youth march-----	59 of 69

PRIDE 1999

Possible schedule

Base on the results of the survey, which also asked for the preferred time for an event the following schedule is suggested:

Friday evening:

Youth dance--37 responses

Saturday:

Youth march--40 responses

"Raising a child in a gay family"--45 responses

"Your role in your gay community"--38 responses

"Making better decisions in the bedroom"--32 responses

"Adoption...an option for me?"--31 responses

"Divorce... who gets custody?"--19 responses

Sunday

"It's time to say No!"--38

"Surviving the streets"--35 responses

"Queers and God"--31 responses

"Should I or shouldn't I?"--29 responses

"How to surf safely"--13 responses

Implications

An overwhelming number of those responding are interested in issues centering around their current role in the family and/or future family issues. The most surprising fact was that most of the fifteen to eighteen year olds were interested in attending the workshop on "Raising a child in a gay family". There were also several concerns on ways to survive within the high school environment. This survey, with its strong responses on family issues such as child rearing, domestic violence, and empowerment as a responsible citizen of the community, clearly suggests further possibilities to address these issues should be made available in the future.

Re: Participation in Atlanta Pride Committee's Youth and Family
Outreach Program

From: Atlanta Pride Youth and Family Outreach Program

With the awarding of a grant from the Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta, the Atlanta Pride Committee is sponsoring a Youth and Family Outreach program during the annual Pride celebration this year.

The focus of the program will be on the portion of the GLBT community often overlooked by the media... GLBT youth and young adults interested in raising families of their own. In addition, the program is planning to address the issues of parenting a gay child, adoption by gay parents, custody following a divorce, and gay parents raising a child. Additional workshops dealing with safe sex, and ways to become an effective citizen representing the gay community are also being considered for presentation during the weekend.

Socially, the Outreach program has plans to sponsor a safe, drug/alcohol free Youth Party on Friday night and a family centered Twilight Picnic Saturday evening.

It is the goal of the Youth and Family Outreach program to enlist the assistance of as many of the community agencies as possible, targeting not only the GLBT population but family issues in general. Those responding to the survey have also indicated an interest in workshops addressing Domestic terrorism--personal safety, Surviving domestic violence and emotional abuse, and Coming out and its effect on your life.

We are hoping that you will wish to be involved in this first time project of Atlanta Pride. Enclosed you will find a copy of the survey distributed in the community, as well as a breakdown of its' results. An initial meeting of the agencies involved is planned within the next two weeks. Several agencies have already appointed representatives to sit on a advisory council. If you are interested, please contact John Badger or Bill Bernitt for further information.

Dear Parade Participant:

Thank you for entering the 2004 Atlanta Pride Parade sponsored by Delta Air Lines. We appreciate your participation.

The parade steps off at 1:00 pm on Sunday, June 29th. The parade begins at the MARTA Civic Center Station at the intersection of West Peachtree St. and Ralph McGill Blvd. The parade will travel down Peachtree Street; turn right onto 10th street and end at the Charles Allen entrance to Piedmont Park. Marchers are able to enter the park at Charles Allen but all vehicles and floats need to continue down 10th Street and park elsewhere. There is no parking available at the festival and very limited parking around Piedmont Park. Grady High School will have parking for $10.00 and the Sheraton Midtown at Colony Square will have parking on a first come first serve basis for $6.00.

Port-potties will be available at the staging area for your comfort.

Enclosed are several important details that will help to insure a fun and successful event. Please share this information with everyone participating in your group's parade entry.

- 1) General parade participant instructions including judging information.
- 2) A copy of the parade assembly area.
- 3) A map of the parade route.
- 4) A Color Index Card with your parade position number. This is your spot in the line-up! Locate that number on the parade assembly area map to find your setup location.
- 5) Directions on how to approach the parade assembly area if your group is entering a vehicle/float in the parade.

Thank you for participating in the 2004 Atlanta Pride Parade. If you have any questions please call the Pride office at 404-929-0071. With your cooperation we can make this a well-organized, fantastic and proud display of our community.

See you Sunday, June 27th!!

Sabrina Bartlett and Daniel Flinchum
Parade Co-chairs

producers of Atlanta's annual lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgendered celebration!

GENERAL PARADE INSTRUCTIONS

The Parade assembly area will open at 10:30 am and close promptly at 12:30 pm. This is necessary so that we can start the parade exactly at 1:00. In order to make the 2004 Atlanta Pride Parade a success, please observe the following guidelines:

MARCHERS:

1. All marchers should arrive no later than 12:00 noon. The assembly area will open at 10:30am and close promptly at 12:30 noon. Volunteers will be available to assist you in locating your assembly position.
2. Once you have arrived at your designated assembly position, have your Parade Representative proceed to the Parade Registration table marked "i" on the map.
3. Be sure to make a poster or banner that can easily identify your group. This sign should be on a pole that can be held above the crowd so that the members of your group can easily find you.
4. Remember – Do not throw anything while you are marching. You can, however, hand things out to the crowd. Also, keep your group within 15-20 feet of the group in front of you.
5. The parade ends at the Charles Allen Street entrance to Piedmont Park. Upon reaching this area, you will be directed by security for a safe disbursement into the park.

VEHICLES/FLOATS:

1. If you have been assigned a position in rows G, F or H, you must arrive at the assembly area between 10:30 am and 11:30 am. All other row positions should arrive no later than 12:00 noon.
2. Once you have arrived at your designated assembly position, have your Parade Representative proceed to the Parade Registration table marked "i" on the map.
3. Be sure your float is clearly identifiable so that group members can easily find you. This will also enable the judges to correctly identify your group during the parade.
4. Remember – Do not throw anything from your vehicle or float. You can, however, hand things out to the crowd. Also, keep your vehicle/float within 15-20 feet of the group in front of you.
5. The parade ends just past the Charles Allen Street entrance to Piedmont Park. All groups with floats or vehicles must not stop or unload. No vehicles/floats will be allowed into the park.

Disclaimer: The Atlanta Pride Committee (APC), Inc. hereby absolves any liability arising from the use of floats, motorcycles, scooters, bicycles, Vespa's or other vehicles in the APC Parade or any activities in association with APC, Inc. In accordance to City, State, and Federal Laws, no alcoholic beverages will be allowed during any portion of the Parade on June 27, 2004. In addition, no person under the influence of alcohol or drugs shall be allowed to operate a motor vehicle during the Pride Parade. Please be advised that the Atlanta Police Dept. are responsible for enforcing all applicable state laws and local ordinances. Such statues may include but are not limited to public decency, alcohol and controlled substances.

Directions for participants entering a vehicle or float and the best way to approach the Parade Assembly Area

Due to the large number of vehicles and floats that have been entered in this year's parade, we are asking you to enter the staging area according to the following directions:

- 1) Take 10th St. (or any street North of 3rd St.) to Spring Street.
- 2) Follow Spring St. (it is one way going south). When you cross Linden Avenue, get into the left most lane.
- 3) Follow the signs for West Peachtree Street.
- 4) Look for Pine Street (there will be a square blue sign that says SciTrek Museum). Turn left onto Pine Street.
- 5) Immediately get into the right lane.
- 6) Follow the signs for West Peachtree Street South.
- 7) Go through the traffic light. Make the next right onto West Peachtree St. NOTE: This is where it may be a little confusing. At the traffic light is an immediate right turn that goes onto a highway bridge. Do NOT turn there. Go through the light and make the next right turn.

Parade Marshals will be present to guide you into the assembly area.

We strongly encourage all other participants take MARTA to the assembly area. You want to exit at the station for "Civic Center".

JUDGING PROCESS INFORMATION

Please follow the instructions below if you choose to have your float judged in the Parade Contest. Floats for business and nonprofit 501 (c)(3) organizations will be judged based on the following criteria:

Visual effect	30%
Originality	30%
Use of theme	40% (The theme for the 2004 parade is Equality=Justice)

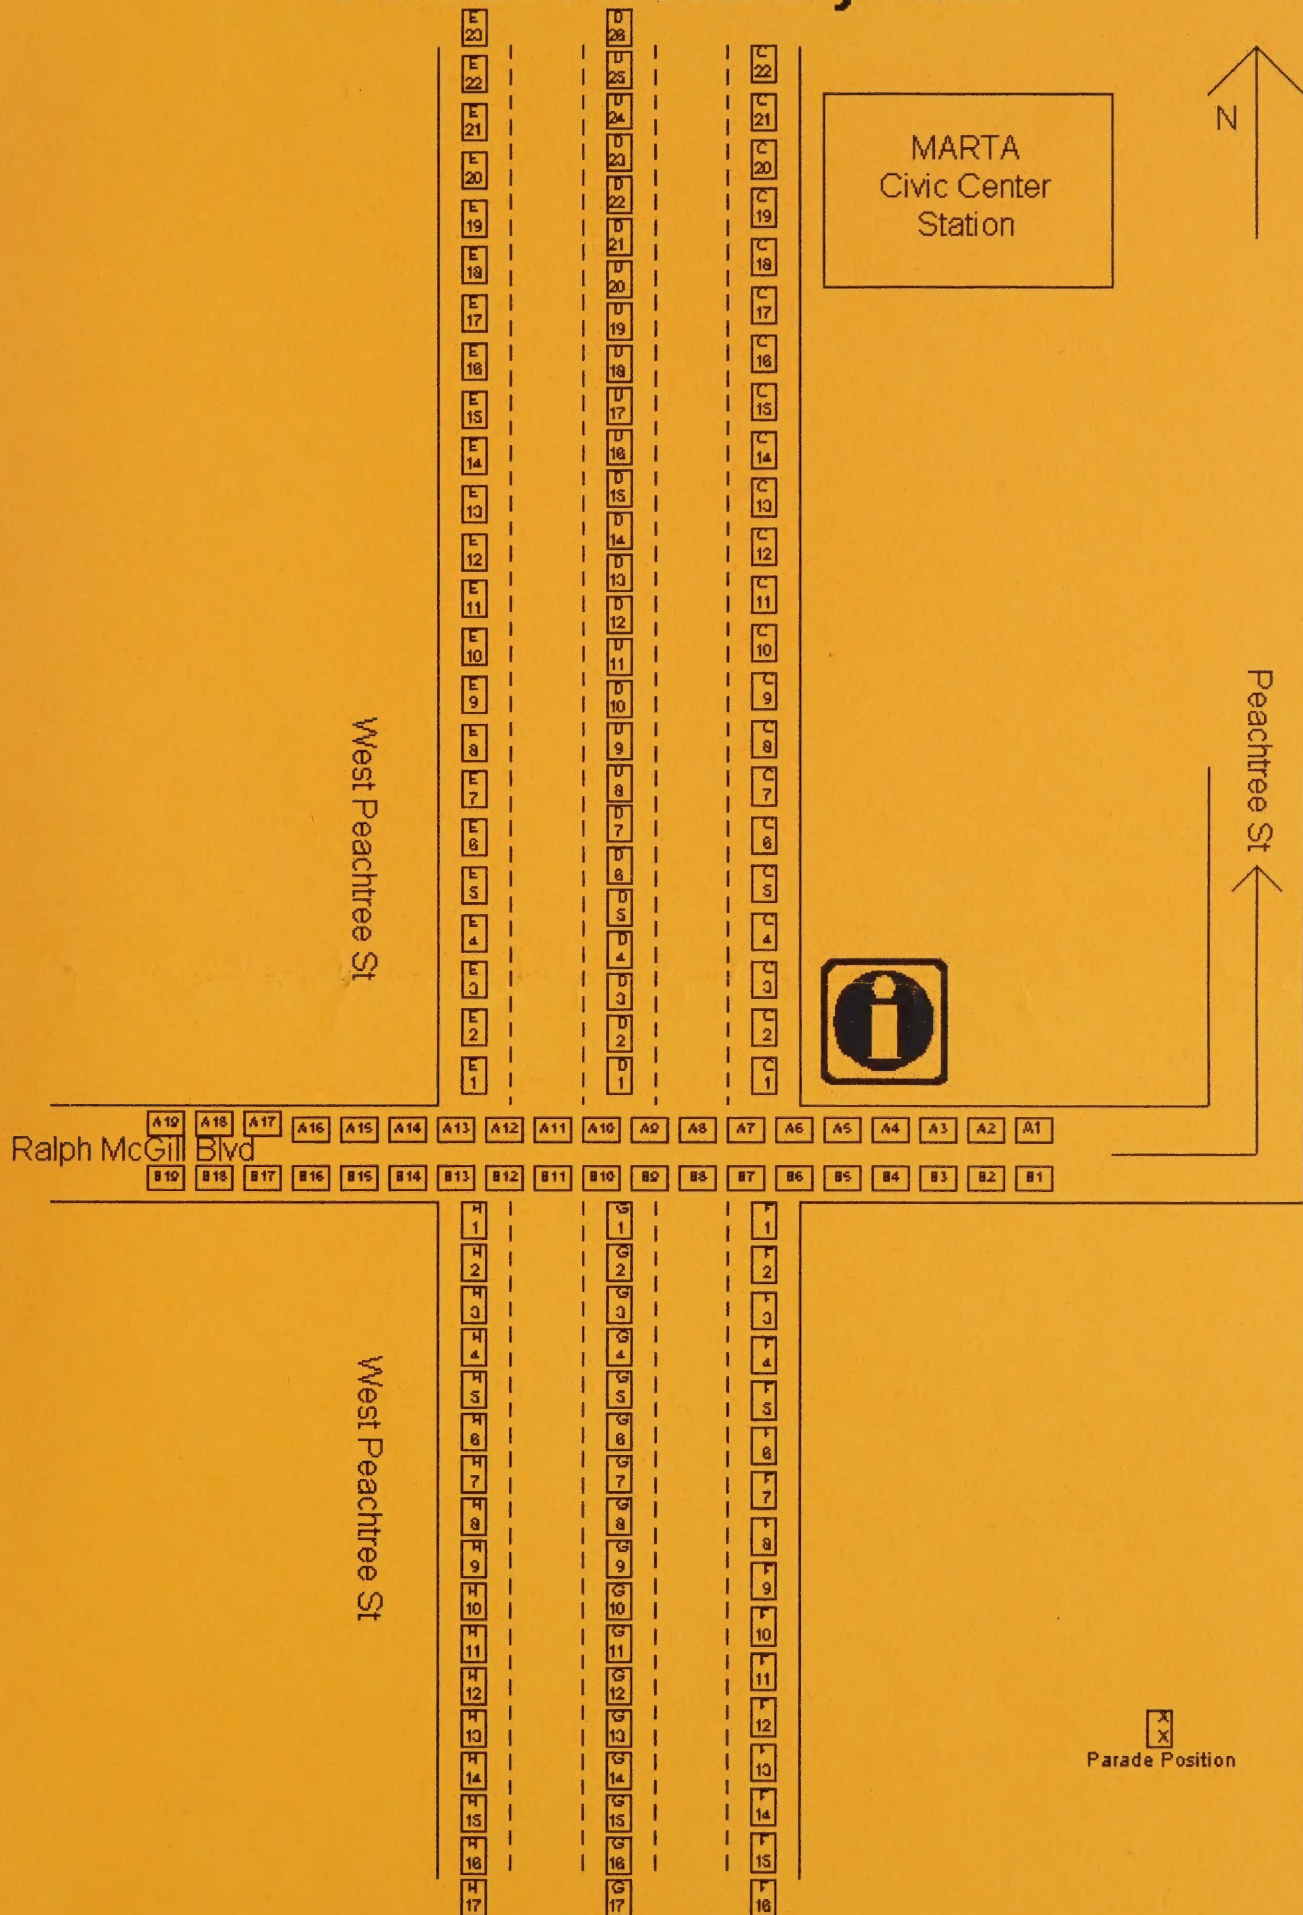

This year we have added two additional categories that will be judged. They are: Best walking group and Best car. (Either one can be a business or non-profit.)

Check in: On Sunday morning the assembly area and Parade check in will open at 10:30 am and close at 12:30 noon. Your Parade Representative must report to Parade check-in prior to 11:30 am. Parade Check-in is located at the corner of West Peachtree and Ralph McGill, in the center of the assembly area.

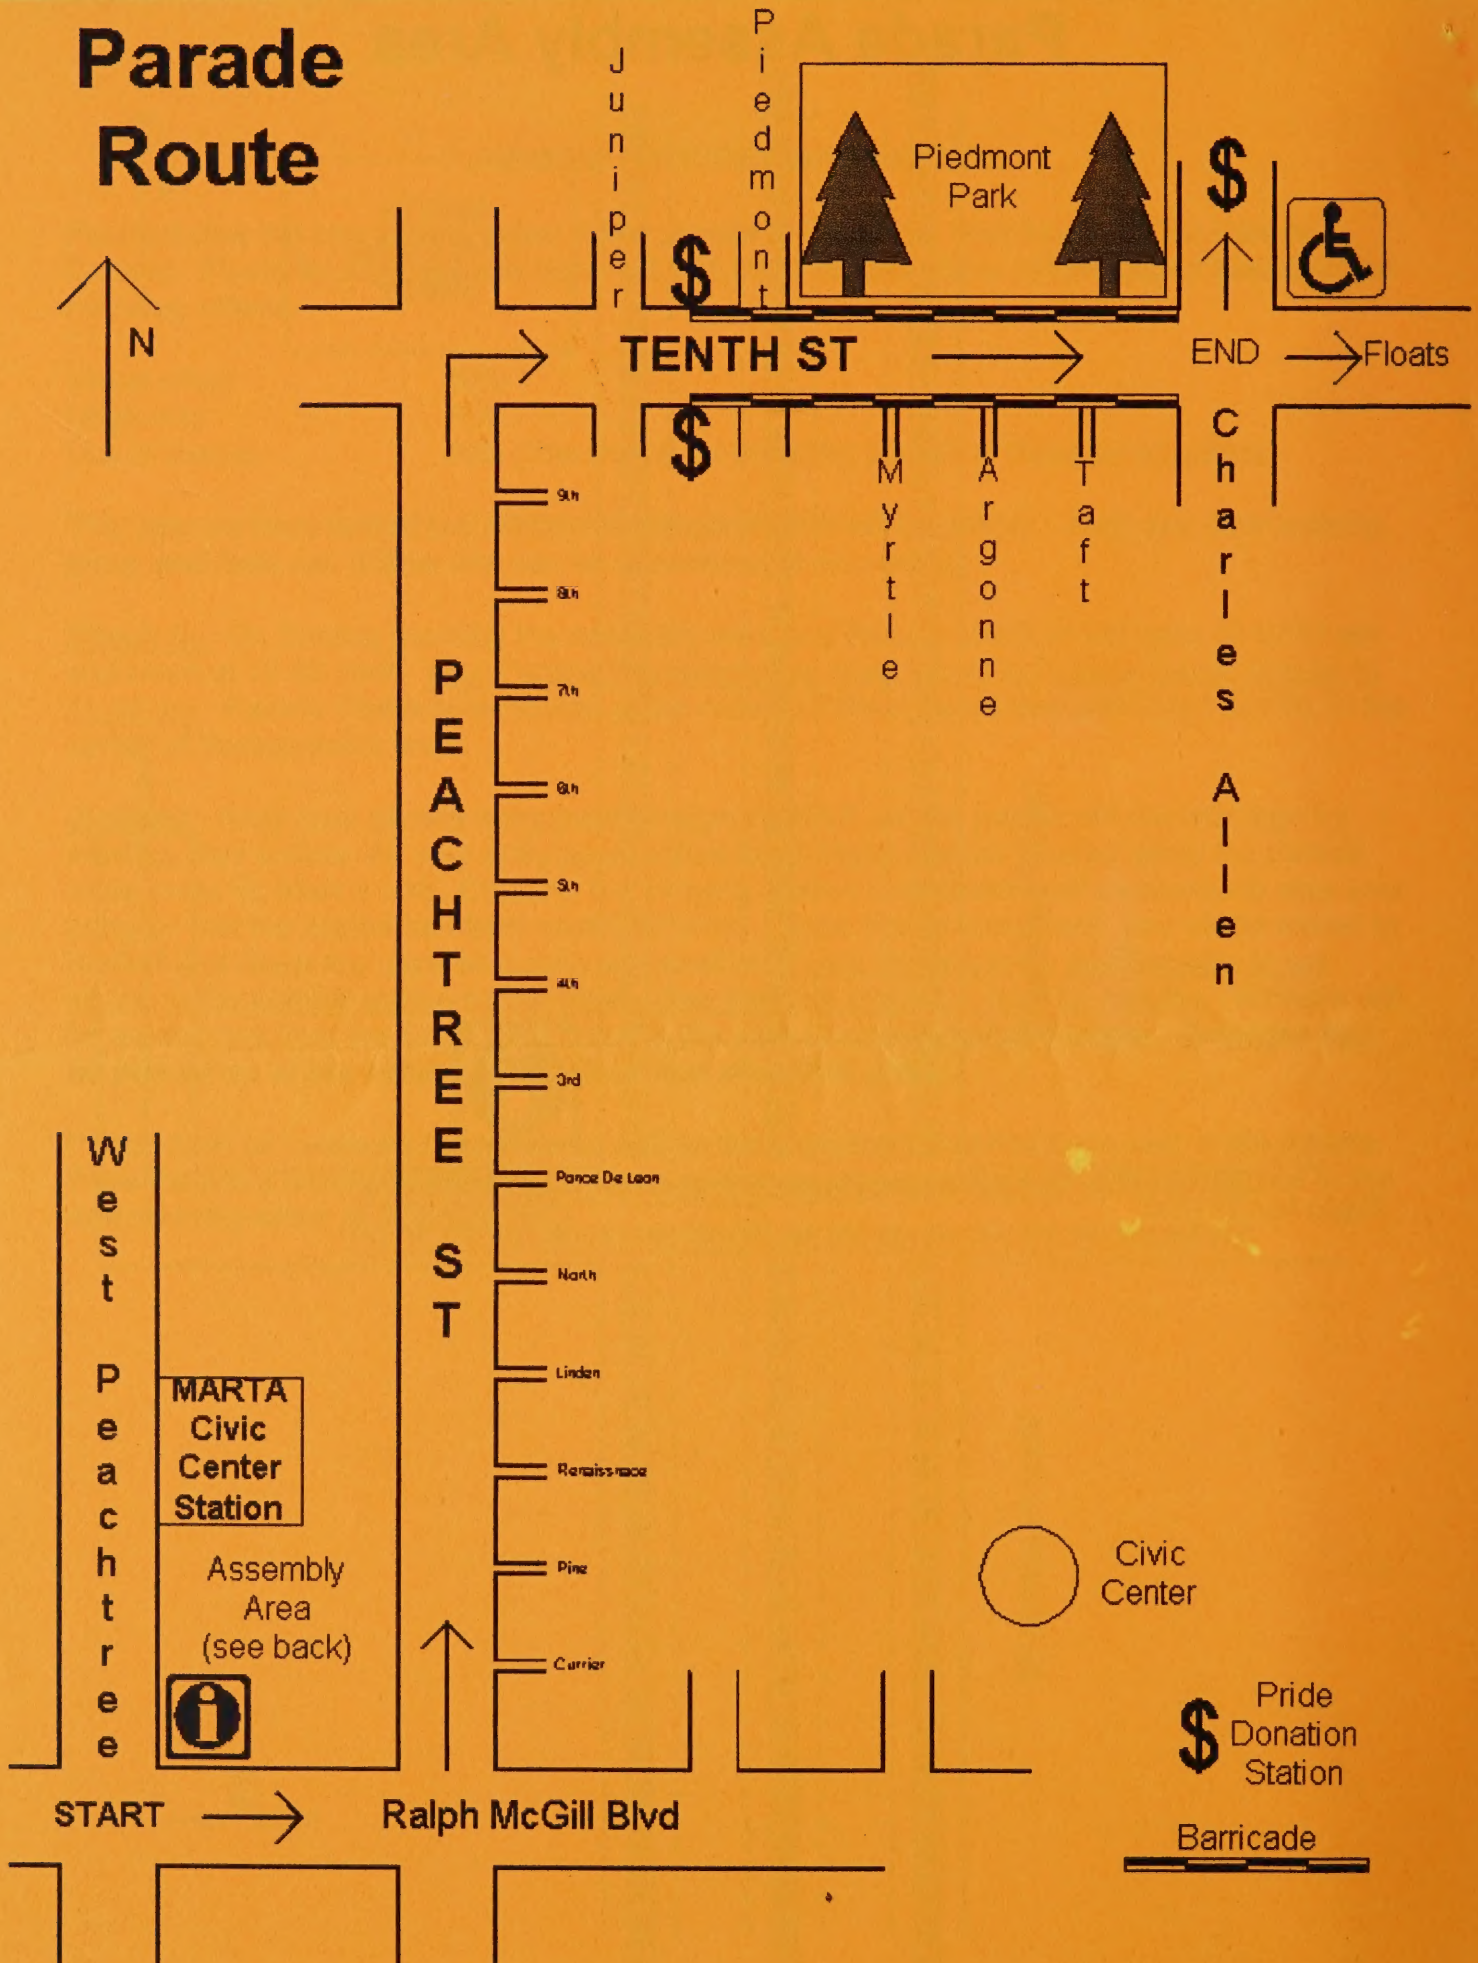

Judging: Keep your parade entry position sign VISIBLE, as the judges will use this sign for marking their ballots. As your entry approaches the Judging Station located along the parade route (near St. Mark's UMC Church), the Judging Station Coordinator will momentarily stop your entry so that the judges can fairly cast their votes. Once that is completed, you will be asked to re-start and close any gaps as quickly as possible. If your Parade entry position sign is not visible to the judging station coordinator – they may not stop your float for judging. Winners will be announced from the Coca-Cola stage in the park at approximately 5:00pm. Trophies can be picked up at the volunteer check-in tent after 5:00 pm.

Please help us to ensure the safety as well as the enjoyment that has been part of the Atlanta Pride Parade's history by adhering to these guidelines. Any questions should be directed to the Atlanta Pride office at 404-929-0071.
